

Bible stories Pop-Up series

A great collection of Bible stories
for little ones
to learn while they play.

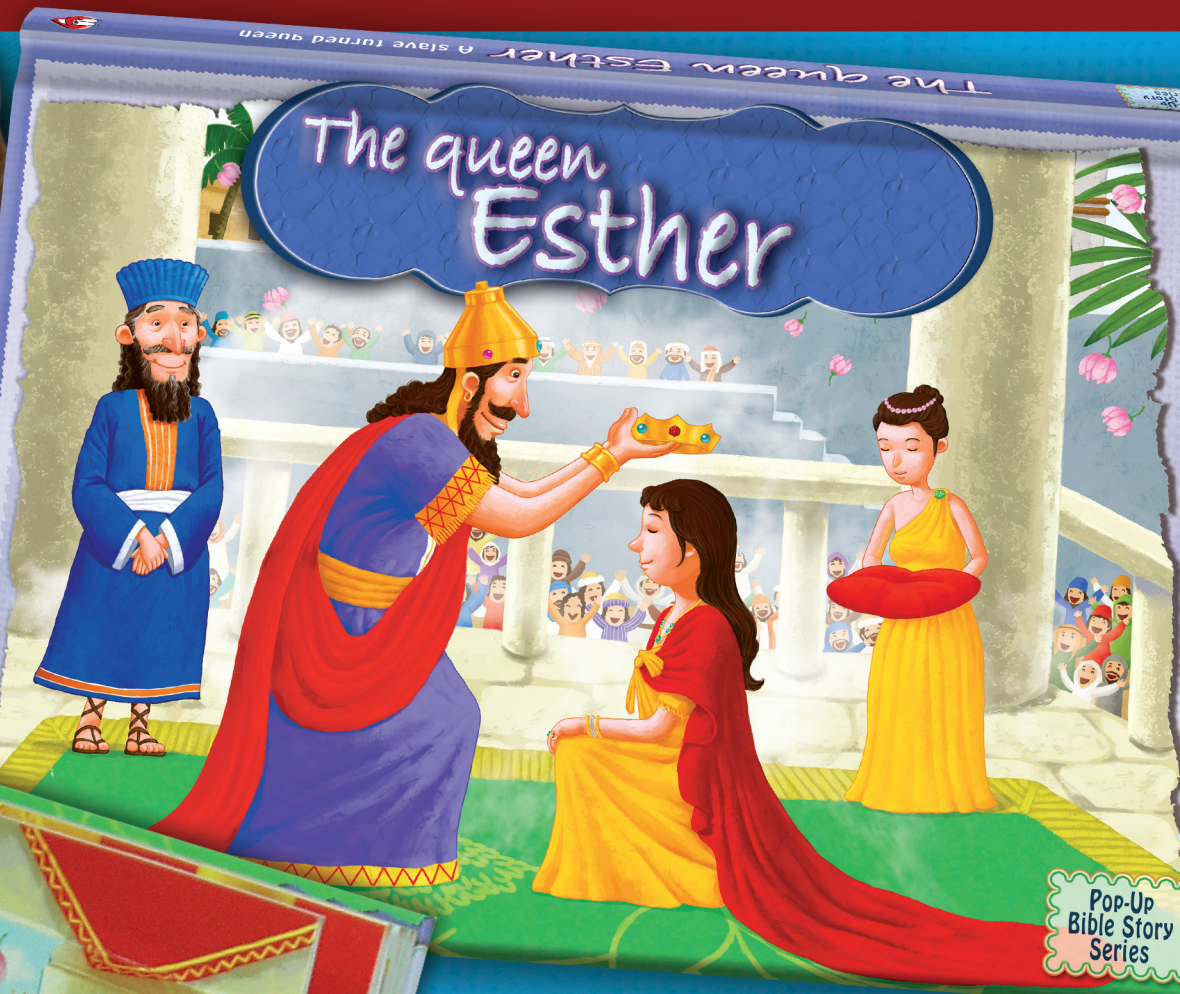

We are all familiar with the world of "Pop-up children's stories" that amaze us with interesting 3D characters and scenes when we open them up.

Which tells about a brave young boy who fought against a giant.

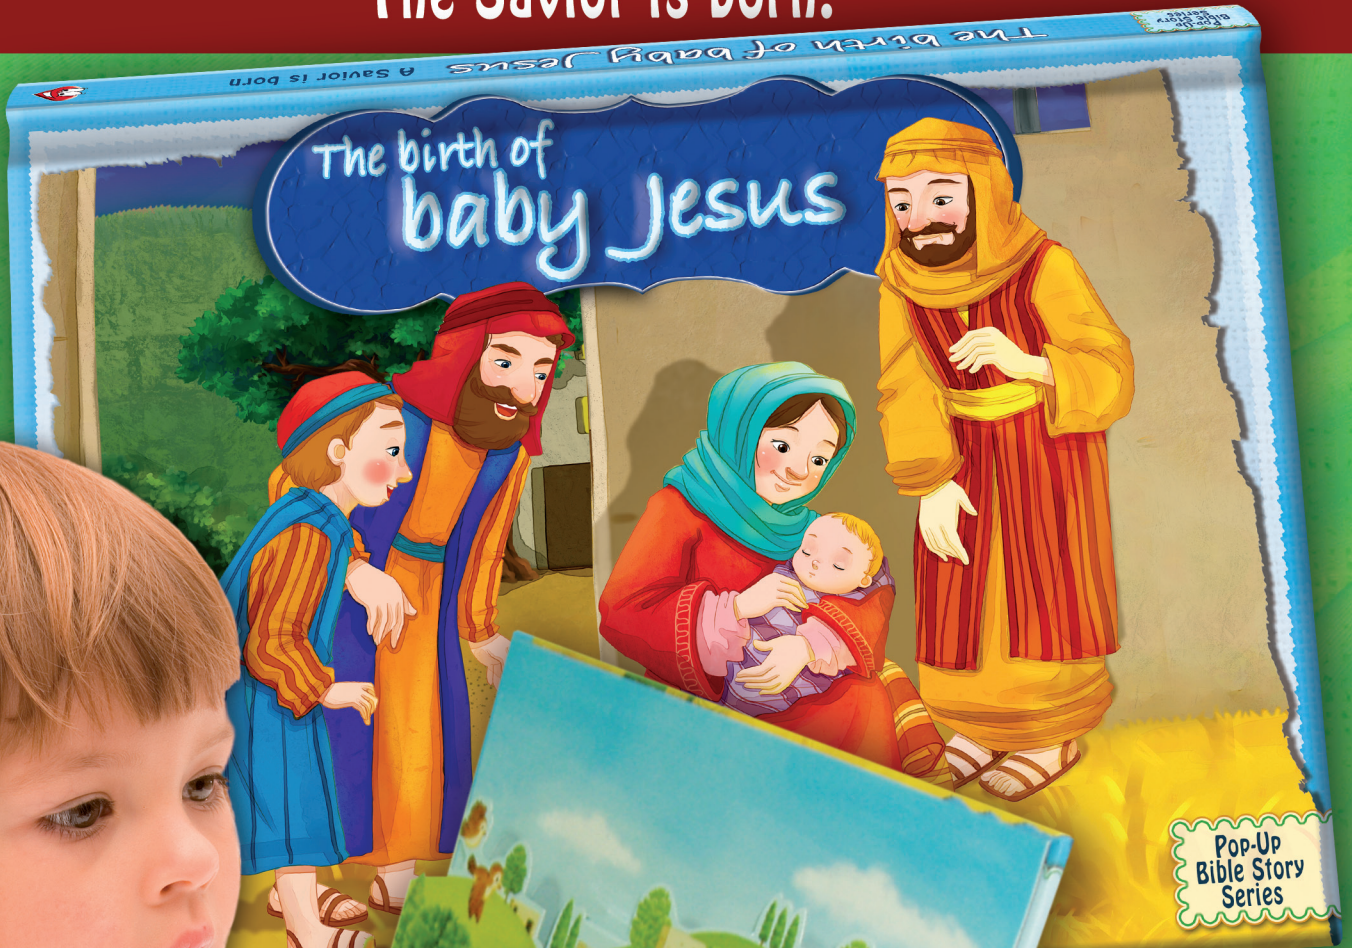

A slave who became Queen.

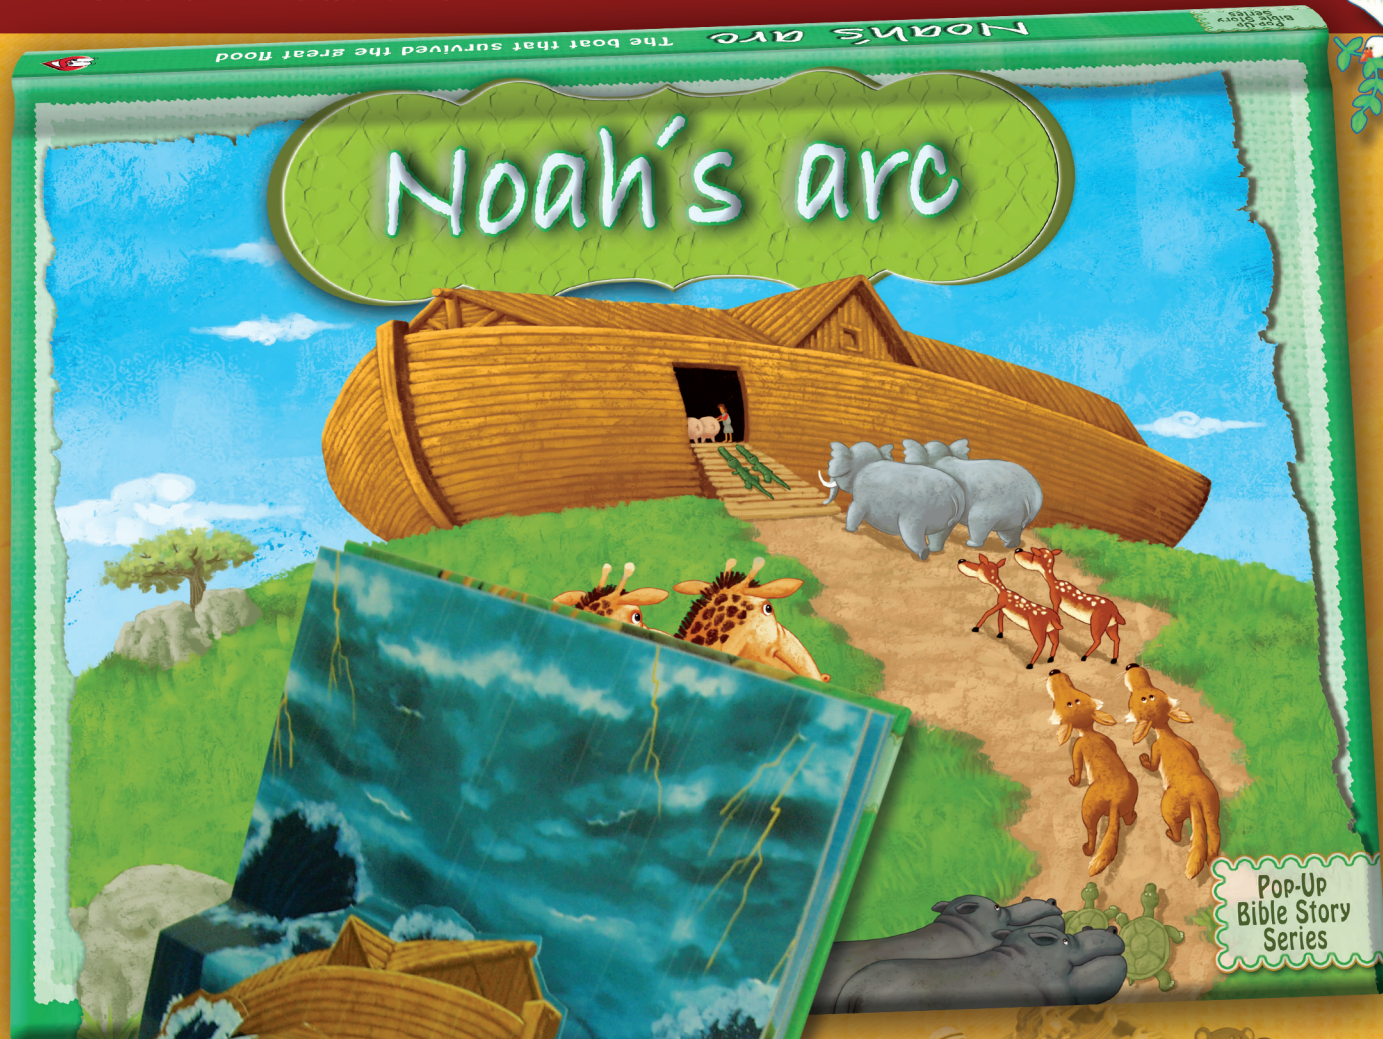

Once upon a time, a Persian king named Ahasuerus celebrated with a one hundred and eighty day party for all his advisors because he wanted to boast about all of the riches of his kingdom and how well he governed his kingdom. Over the King threw another party for his advisors.

The Savior is born.

A story about the boat that survived the Great Flood.

Which tells of of three brave men who would not bow to idols.

These small master pieces capture instantly the attention of children with their stunning visual appeal and their evidently creative value.

These Pop-up books are a great way to get the little ones started on the word of God and His love.

As it is written in Proverbs:

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

